Saved Through Destruction—Living For God When No One Else Is.

Genesis 6–9

The Reality of Sin

Genesis 6:5 – "Every inclination… only _____ all the time."

We were created good, but sin has corrupted the _____.
Sin brings grief to the _____ of God.

God's Response: Judgment & Grace

Genesis 6:8 – "Noah found _____ in the eyes of the LORD."

God responds to sin with both judgment and _____.
Righteousness comes from God's _____, not our effort.

The Problem Remains

Genesis 8:21

The human heart is _____ from childhood.
The flood did not remove _____.

The True Ark & Our Response

Hebrews 11:7 | 1 Peter 3:20–21

Jesus is the true _____ who carries us through judgment.
Our Response:

Believe
Be set apart
Bear witness

Saved Through Destruction—Living For God When No One Else Is.

Genesis 6–9

The Reality of Sin

Genesis 6:5 – "Every inclination… only _____ all the time."

We were created good, but sin has corrupted the _____.
Sin brings grief to the _____ of God.

God's Response: Judgment & Grace

Genesis 6:8 – "Noah found _____ in the eyes of the LORD."

God responds to sin with both judgment and _____.
Righteousness comes from God's _____, not our effort.

The Problem Remains

Genesis 8:21

The human heart is _____ from childhood.
The flood did not remove _____.

The True Ark & Our Response

Hebrews 11:7 | 1 Peter 3:20–21

Jesus is the true _____ who carries us through judgment.
Our Response:

Believe
Be set apart
Bear witness

Small Group Questions

Living For God When No One Else Is. Genesis 6-9.

Q1. Have you ever felt very alone in trying to do the right thing?

Q2. What does it look like, practically, to image God and bring him glory in everyday life. (Read Matthew 5:16 for one answer)

Q3. Read Gensis 6:9. What are the three ways Noah is described in this verse. Which stands out to you as a desire for your own life and walk with God?

Q4. Read Genesis 6:6-7. Dan explained God's regret over creating humanity was a poetic way of describing just how sorrowful/grieved God is over human sin rather than God saying he made a mistake. It seems that God is angry over sin, but here the focus is on his grief over it. Does this effect your view of sin? If so, how?

Q5. Read Genesis 8:21. What does this verse tell us about humanity's problem with sin? Why can't only an external change heal it? And, what does this point to in the future?

Q6. Where are you tempted to "blend in" rather than live set apart for God? What would faithfulness look like in that specific situation?

Q7. If it is true that the way we live communicates to others, what message does your current lifestyle say to others about God?

Q8. If Jesus is the "true ark," who in your life needs to hear about him? What is one step you can take to point them toward Christ?

Small Group Questions

Living For God When No One Else Is. Genesis 6-9.

Q1. Have you ever felt very alone in trying to do the right thing?

Q2. What does it look like, practically, to image God and bring him glory in everyday life. (Read Matthew 5:16 for one answer)

Q3. Read Gensis 6:9. What are the three ways Noah is described in this verse. Which stands out to you as a desire for your own life and walk with God?

Q4. Read Genesis 6:6-7. Dan explained God's regret over creating humanity was a poetic way of describing just how sorrowful/grieved God is over human sin rather than God saying he made a mistake. It seems that God is angry over sin, but here the focus is on his grief over it. Does this effect your view of sin? If so, how?

Q5. Read Genesis 8:21. What does this verse tell us about humanity's problem with sin? Why can't only an external change heal it? And, what does this point to in the future?

Q6. Where are you tempted to "blend in" rather than live set apart for God? What would faithfulness look like in that specific situation?

Q7. If it is true that the way we live communicates to others, what message does your current lifestyle say to others about God?

Q8. If Jesus is the "true ark," who in your life needs to hear about him? What is one step you can take to point them toward Christ?