Small Group Questions

Ruth 3: Shelter Me, I Lord.

1. Do you remember a time when, either as a child or adult, you were doing something and suddenly realized that things could go poorly really quickly? (That you were exposed and vulnerable)

2. Read Ruth 3:1-8.
What risks was Ruth taking by following Naomi's instructions and approaching Boaz at the threshing floor?

3. Read Ruth 2:12 and Ruth 3:9.
Dan said that the Hebrew word used for “garment” in Ruth 3:9 is the same word used for “wings” in Ruth 2:12. What connection do you see between Boaz's earlier prayer for Ruth and her request to Boaz? Why might this connection be important?

What was Ruth asking for in this situation?

4. Read Ruth 3:10-13.
What qualities of character do you see in Ruth? What qualities do you see in Boaz?

5. Read Ezekiel 16:8-14.
How does God's description of covering and caring for Israel help us understand what is happening between Ruth and Boaz?

6. Ruth came to Boaz vulnerable, needy, and unable to provide for herself. How is this similar to way in which we approach Christ as our Redeemer.

(Read Matthew 11:28-30; 1 Peter 5:6-7)

7. Is there an area of your life right now where you need to ask the Lord to "cover" or shelter you? What would it look like to trust Him in that situation this week?
