Small Group Questions

I know the plans I have for you. The Prophets.

Q1. What is the most important message you have every been charged with carrying? How was it received?

Q2. Dan said that his goal on Sunday was to give you a clear picture of what is happening in the Books of the Prophets in the Bible. He said some people just see funny names, confusing ramblings, and angry shouting. To what extent is that true of you?

Q3. Consider the three part framework on the reverse side of this page. Talk through how (if at all) this helps you understand the prophets (and the Bible as a whole).

Q4. Read Matthew 21:33-39. How does this parable from Jesus help us understand the prophets and Jesus himself?

Exercise: On the reverse side of the page you will find verses from Isaiah and Jeremiah that fit with the three part framework of the prophets. Pick one the prophets and work through the passages given.

Q5. Dan said that if God continually sends his prophets to turn the hearts of the people back to him, then he must really love the people. Do you agree with this? Has your walk with the Lord reflected this same love?

Q6. Ultimately God would send his only begotten Son… and he was rejected and crucified. What is the first emotion that comes to mind when you consider that truth?

God sent the prophets. God sent his Son. The Son is sending you as His witnesses. Talk about the role of the follower of Jesus as one who speaks God's truth and demonstrates God's love. Pray for one another.
